

Week 5 – Burning Desire

Desire = the starting point of all achievement! Whatever the mind can conceive and believe it can achieve. Napoleon Hill

In chapter 2 of Think and Grow Rich Napoleon Hill told us that it is vital you create a burning desire within yourself so you are able to go after the things you want to achieve.

Are you ready to create wealth in your life? Well, then we need to find that burning desire. Then, what we need to do is transfer that desire for wealth into these practical steps.

SIX STEPS FOR CREATING BURNING DESIRE

Following these steps exactly is extremely important.

1. Fix your mind on the exact amount of money you desire and what you plan to do with the money. It is not sufficient to say, "I want a lot of money." You must be definite as regards the amount and the purpose. There are metaphysical reasons for this.
2. Determine exactly what you intend to give in time or talent for the money you desire. Remember, there's no such thing as something for nothing.
3. Establish a specific date you intend to possess the money you desire.
4. Create a definite date and plan for carrying out your desire. It is important that you begin at once - right this very moment - whether you are ready or not to put this plan into action.

5. Write down (I use an index card) a clear and concise plan of the amount of money you intend to acquire.
  - a. Name the time limit for its acquisition.
  - b. State what you intend to give in return for the money.
  - c. Describe clearly the plan to which you intend to accumulate it.
6. Read your written statement aloud twice daily.
  - a. Read once before bed and once in the morning.
  - b. As you read it, see it, feel and imagine yourself already in possession of the money.
  - c. It's important to really build up the belief that is inside of you.

BELIEVE - it really works! Keep your eyes open for things to show up to help you achieve your burning desire.
